Michelle Salcedo

Michelle Salcedo has been in the early education field for over 30 years working as a teacher, a director, a trainer, and a family educator in numerous childcare settings. She has worked in a leadership position in the education departments of two of the largest childcare corporations in the United States. Currently, she serves as the Director of Professional Development at Teaching Strategies. In this role she supports trainers as they deliver thousands of hours of engaging professional development to educators around the world. She has authored various articles and the book Uncover the Roots of Challenging Behaviors. She has the pleasure and honor of meeting many early education professionals as she travels the country as a speaker at conferences and early childhood events.
