

The Early Childhood Conference

A Spectacular Virtual Experience

FEATURED PRESENTER

Richard Cohen

Richard Cohen, M.A. has proudly been an early childhood professional for over thirty years. For the last twenty years, he has traveled the world as a consultant, coach and motivational speaker, facilitating fun, innovative, thought-provoking, interactive adult learning experiences for communities of teachers, administrators, caregivers and parents. Additionally, he curates his viral social media presence, “Zen and the Art of Early Childhood Education,” offers a catalogue of online ECE Professional Development courses and hosts Community Sing-a-Longs.

Recently, Richard has fallen in love with teaching at the community college level at Manchester Community College in Connecticut . In the positions he describes as “the best jobs of my life,” Richard has been an infant, toddler, preschool, and kindergarten teacher as well as a center director! He received his Masters Degree in Human Development from Pacific Oaks College. He is an active member of the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) and the International Play Association.
