

The Early Childhood Conference

A Spectacular Virtual Experience

FEATURED PRESENTER

Gail Burnett

GAIL BURNETT and her Atlanta-based band, Miss Gail and the Jumpin' Jam Band, are highly sought after performers of interactive jumpin', dancing, wiggling music shows at events, schools and venues.

She has a passion for helping ALL young children get moving and active to benefit both physical and emotional health, in addition to making all-important brain connections for rhythm and pitch. Her original music has received Teacher's and Parent's Choice awards, was on the Grammy Ballot, and many schools use her music as part of their early childhood curriculum.

Gail is also a Teacher Trainer on the subject of Early Childhood Music/Movement, early childhood music brain development, and using music effectively in the classroom at conferences such as NAEYC and its' state affiliates. She co-authored a textbook, Enhancing Brain Development in Infants and Young Children: Strategies for Caregivers and Educators (College Teachers Press, September 2020) and was awarded a spot on the Georgia Council For the Arts Teaching Artists Registry in 2020.

Conference Session

Saturday, April 24, 2021
10:00 am - 11:00 am

Adapting Active Music...Let's Go!