Dr. Jean Feldman

Dr. Jean Feldman's noteworthy educational career has spanned more than 40 years. She has served as a classroom teacher, instructor of adults, author, and consultant. She is a member of the National Association for the Education of Young Children and Georgia Preschool Association. Dr. Feldman's list of degrees include a B.A. from the University of Georgia, a D.A.S.T. from Emory University, and both M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Georgia State University. She is currently Early Childhood Educator in Residence at the College of Charleston. Dr. Feldman inspires teachers across the country with her engaging songs and creative activities that help make teaching and learning FUN!

Among Dr. Jean's many accomplishments is the authorship of many books and recordings that are used by school systems throughout the country including: Survival Guide for Preschool Teachers, The Complete Book of Indoor and Outdoor Games & Activities, Dr. Jean Sings Silly Songs and Dr. Jean and Friends featuring an all-time favorite of both teachers and children, Tooty Ta!

"Thanks for helping me put a song in the hearts of children!" Dr. Jean
